

NOTES FROM MINUTES OF TRAVEL GROUP MEETING 07/08/26

THANKS TO Peter for a successful and enjoyable Mystery Trip to the Cotswolds and for arranging the meal at the Down on the way home. PETER had had some problems so reiterated "PLEASE make sure whenever making a booking do that first and then pay, making sure that your name is on the booking and then on the payment"! He has 67 booked for Christmas lunch, 3 places left on the coach, any further bookings after that will mean the member/s will have to make their own way to Bridgnorth,

FINANCES There is a balance of £1,711.86 a slight increase from last month. The hire of the Hall has been paid until the end of the year

MARJORIE Places still available for Worcester, payments, if not already made, are due now.

JENNY. Places, due to cancellations, are still available for the theatre visit to see "Chess" in October.

JIM Reported a successful and pleasant annual Summer lunch at the Black Horse, Maesbrook. Meal was good, drinks on arrival were free as was tea and coffee after the meal, Jim also received money back which will go to offset any future loss on a trip. There are 3 places left on the visit to the pantomime in January 2027 but need to be taken up asap. J

The programme for next year was raised, Suggestions of where to go were put forward several ideas were put forward and 4 5day/4nights in Northumberland, Kent, Suffolk and Harrogate were chosen. 4 members will now follow these up through various travel Agents.

JENNY has formally said she will be standing down as Group Leader at the AGM in November. If anyone feels that they would be able to taken this on please put your name forward. There will be no obligation to run trips/breaks.
